Creative technologist and Software Development Engineering student combining visual storytelling with working digital interfaces. I explore editorial layouts, interactive web experiences and motion, connecting the visual idea with the logic that makes it usable.

SELECTED WORK

Laguna Hawks

Designed a public web experience for a student gravity-racing team, connecting engineering storytelling, team identity and sponsorship information.

HeForShe · Entre nos

Created a warm editorial interface for a student initiative: digital newspaper pages, stories, events, generations and an editable publishing workflow. Development version.

MyFather

Bilingual educational web experience with lessons, activities, progress, reward logic and distinct supervised child and adult spaces.

TRAZA FIT · SHIFT

Built a work-integrated learning interface with career pathways, evidence collection, interactive practice and a separate content-control workspace. React, TypeScript, Supabase and Cloudflare.

TextHuman

Developed a web writing product with authentication, payment flows, PostgreSQL, transactional email and Cloudflare Workers.
